

Non-executive Director - Take 3 For The Sea

Take 3 is looking for non-executive directors who are passionate about Take3's mission which is to inspire participation in simple actions that reduce the impacts of plastic pollution and waste in the ocean and broader environment.

About Take 3 for the Sea?

Wherever we are, we are connected to the sea. The ocean provides us with the oxygen we breathe and the climate that sustains us. We need a healthy ocean for our own survival. Plastic pollution is killing wildlife, devastating oceans, and threatening the health of our planet.

In 2009, two friends set about solving this big problem. Marine ecologist, Roberta Dixon-Valk and youth educator, Amanda Marechal developed Take 3 – an idea where a simple action could produce profound consequences. Joining forces with environmentalist, Tim Silverwood, the trio publicly launched Take 3 as an organisation in 2010.

Take 3 pieces of rubbish with you when you leave the beach, waterway or...anywhere, and you have made a difference. Take 3 is leading a movement of people who are connected to the planet to remove plastic pollution from the environment and support measures to prevent waste and pollution.

Our education programs in schools, surf clubs, communities and online focus on inspiration and participation. We believe everyone has the power to take action and create positive change, no matter where they are.

Take 3 supports the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and advocates for a circular economy future. Established as a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee, Take3 is governed by a board of non-executive directors.
